Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

Mind – To Know

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

Glendale School

acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2025-2026 school year:

We commit to honouring the land not only as a place for learning, but as a living teacher, relative, and source of wisdom. Inspired by Call to Action 10, we will plan meaningful Land-Based Learning that centres Indigenous worldviews and respects Treaty 7 territory.

We commit to deepening staff capacity through responsive professional learning rooted in intercultural understanding, empathy, and respect, in alignment with Call to Action 57. With support from Elders, Knowledge Keepers, and Indigenous educators, we will nourish the learning spirit through connections to land, story, identity, and community.

We commit to creating a welcoming and respectful school community where Indigenous students and families feel seen, heard, and honoured. In response to Call to Action 63, we will continue to build student understanding of Indigenous histories, languages, and cultures

Our work will reflect the wisdom shared by those who came before us and honour our shared responsibility to walk toward reconciliation with open hearts and open minds.
